FROM: Dick Hill, ASIS

DATE: September 15, 1993

IMPORTANT CHANGE: Apparently I was wrong back in the Spring when I e-mailed you about the ASIS session at the Information Industry Association meeting. It is scheduled for SUNDAY, OCTOBER 17. I had originally said it was scheduled for October 10. If this change in date causes a conflict for any of you, please let me know IMMEDIATELY.

I include below the description of the session which Cliff developed and that will be published. Regardless of the IIA description, determined by their marketing people and space considerations, I would like to present the session outlined by Cliff. I will send a copy of the complete program by mail to each of you for your information. If you would like to attend the entire meeting, they do have a special registration price available of $395.00.

If you have any questions or if this schedule change causes a conflict, please let me know immediately.
